Seacrest HOT FOR SELENA

— even though Bieber's ex IS HALF HIS AGE

RYAN SEACREST has flipped for Justin's Bieber's ex-girlfriend, Selena Gomez! The saucy "Spring Breakers" hottie apparently caught Ryan's eye when she dropped by his L.A. radio show. But at 38, sources say the "American Idol" host is afraid he's too old for the talented 20-year-old singer.

"SELENA SHOWED UP looking super-sexy in a low-cut top, and she totally flirted with Ryan," said an insider.

"At one point he asked her if the lyrics to her new single, 'Come & Get it,' were about the Biebs, and Selena said, half-joking, that they were actually about him!"

After the interview, Ryan — who recently split from former "Dancing with the Stars" pro Julianne Hough — told pals that he'd love to ask Selena for a date, said the source.

"Ryan thinks they would have a great time together," revealed the source. "The problem is he's afraid that she'd laugh and tell him he's old enough to be her dad — which, in fact, he is."

Despite that, Ryan hinted to Selena's people that he's interested, hoping to sidestep the embarrassment of asking her directly and being shot down, said the source.

"Ryan is used to dating younger women," the source continued. "After all, Julianne was just 24. So dating Selena wouldn't be that much different."

"I'm sure that if Selena's pals tell Ryan she'd go out with him, she'll be getting a call. Selena's expressed interest in seeing older, more mature men, but I'm not sure that means she's looking for someone who's pushing 40!"

FUR goodness' sake! Ashley Olsen's spring cleaning turned up a big surprise — the former "Full House" star has $2 million worth of fur coats hanging in her closet!

"Ashley was stunned at the value of her fur collection," a pal told The ENQUIRER.

"One coat alone was worth $500,000!"

But the classy collection turned into a public relations nightmare for the famed fashionista — who's now under fire from the animal rights group People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals, known as PETA.

PETA branded Ashley and her sister Mary-Kate as Despite that, the pint-size blondes have never wavered in their love of vintage mink, chinchilla or fox furs, sources say.

"ASHLEY AND MARY-KATE HAVE been targeted for wearing fur for years," said the pal. "But they claim their designs use ethically sourced fur, which includes animals that are hunted and not bred solely for their fur."

"Still, animal rights campaigners won't let up. Meanwhile, Mary-Kate's fur collection is at least three times as big as her sister's. Ashley has warned her to be sitting down if she ever gets around to having her furs valued."

'Housewife' NeNe WEDDING DISASTER

During their first marriage, Gregg encountered financial problems

- Fiance Gregg refuses to sign prenup
- She's scared he'll take her million$

DON'T buy a wedding gift yet! "Real Housewives of Atlanta" star NeNe Leakes and her ex-husband Gregg announced they were going to remarry – but now the groom-to-be is balking at signing a prenup.

NeNe, 45, and Gregg, 58, a real estate developer, were married for nearly 14 years before she filed for divorce in 2010. He fought hard to win her back, and earlier this year they joyously revealed they were engaged to be remarried.

But NeNe, who's worth an estimated $4.5 million, had second thoughts after getting a fat raise – from $750,000 to $1 million – for Season 6 of the hit Bravo series.

The feisty performer also has income from roles on "The New Normal" and "Glee" and wants to make sure her good fortune doesn't become a payday for Gregg if they split again.

"NeNe loves Gregg and hopes their marriage will last this time, but if it doesn't work out she wants him to walk away only with what he's bringing into it," a family friend revealed.

"She says she earned what she's got by herself, and is demanding Gregg sign a prenup or there won't be a wedding."

The first time around, the couple did not have a prenuptial agreement, and Gregg is said to be insulted she's now asking for one.

"He feels he has always supported NeNe," explained the friend. "Their divorce was not about spending too much or stealing from her, so he doesn't think he needs a piece of paper to show he won't take advantage."

NeNe first met Gregg in 1996. A year later, the single mom married the developer and they had a son.

But during their marriage, Gregg encountered painful financial problems.

He claimed on the reality show that he had invested a whopping $300,000 in NeNe's career, and that remark led to a huge blowout which marked the beginning of the end of their marriage.

"NeNe has written a memoir called 'Never Make the Same Mistakes Twice,' and she says she's determined to live by that today," noted the friend. "The prenup is not up for discussion. If Gregg doesn't sign on the dotted line, NeNe won't be saying 'I do.'"

CHAZ BONO is heartbroken that his superstar mom has snubbed him as he tries to launch his showbiz career.

Since March 22, Cher's transgender son has been performing at West Hollywood's Celebration Theater in a 30-minute rock musical based on the 1989 cult classic "Road House" – but Cher hasn't made it to a single show, The ENQUIRER has learned.

And while Cher may be a busy woman, she's been managing to find time to play around on Twitter while her son is singing and dancing his heart out onstage.

A SOURCE WHO ATTENDED the April 13 performance had nothing but praise for the former "Dancing with the Stars" contestant, who recently revealed that he's dropped 60 pounds thanks to an intense mixed martial arts exercise routine and a strict diet.

"You could tell all of Chaz's hard work has really been paying off, because he had the energy and strength to hold his own next to his very physically fit co-stars," said the source. "His singing was really good too."

"The audience went wild for him and everyone was cheering him on, so it's a shame Cher had to miss it."

Chaz has been performing in a rock musical in West Hollywood night, Cher was goofing off online. In early April, after the death of former British prime minister Margaret Thatcher, the 66-year-old superstar was prematurely killed off by Twitter followers who misread "nowTHATCHERisdead" as "nowthatCHERisdead."

Cher referenced the mistake in an April 13 tweet, joking that she was going out shopping for a black leather motorcycle shroud. And in the days prior, she was tweeting about the progress of the album she's recording with her own mom, Georgia Holt – at the same time Chaz was onstage!

Cher has mentioned Chaz just once since he's been performing, when she tweeted a photo of them together at the 44th birthday party she threw for him at her L.A. home...in early March. "The fact that his mom has snubbed him has completely devastated him," added the source. "Chaz wanted so badly to show her how talented he is and what a great singer he's become, but it seems she's just too busy to make any time for him these days."

Actor James Woods managed to hang on to his 40-years-younger girlfriend for seven years, but now the curvy blonde has fallen for a guy who's closer to her age.

The "Shark" star, 66, confirmed in an exclusive ENQUIRER interview that he's split from sexy Ashley Madison, who began dating Woods when she was 19.

"Ashley was young and I was old, and everybody wanted to dump on her," Woods told The ENQUIRER.

"SHE WAS PUT THROUGH A LOT OF UNFAIR stuff because of our relationship, but through it all Ashley showed tremendous character.

"We've gone our separate ways, but I will always love her."

The craggy-faced actor, who starred as a hustler who cons Sharon Stone in "Casino," said Ashley helped him through the heartbreak of losing his beloved kid brother, Michael, who died of a heart attack at age 49 in 2006.

At the time, Ashley – the daughter of one of Woods' best pals – was slammed in the press for wearing a miniskirt and chain-smoking during his brother's funeral service.

"But I want the world to know that nothing could be further from the truth," Woods declared.

"Mean-spirited people who wanted to hurt Ashley made up that story."

In 2011, The ENQUIRER reported that Ashley had hoped for an engagement ring from Woods on her 25th birthday.

"I had to give all my attention to my mom and it wasn't fair to Ashley," Woods said.

Ashley now lives in Florida and has fallen for 28-year-old businessman Joe Spinella, who runs the popular Teak restaurant in Daytona Beach.

Her new beau has given her "a promise ring" and they're working together to expand his business, Ashley told The ENQUIRER.

"I'm happy now, but I will always have special feelings for James," she said. "We had some great times together."

Meanwhile, Woods — who's featured in several upcoming films — is moving on. "I've met someone who is not in the business," he said. "We'll see where it goes."

Insiders say that episode led to her decision to end their union.

The two married in 1993, not long after Jane split from her third husband David Flynn amid charges of boozing, drug use and womanizing.

"For the most part, they've had a strong marriage," said an insider about the acting couple, who have 17-year-old twin sons together. "But the episode between James and the attractive server was like déjà vu for Jane. She didn't know if she could ever trust him again."

AS her father lay pinned beneath the crushing weight of his car, Lauren Kornacki prayed to God for strength – then miraculously lifted the vehicle off the unconscious man and performed lifesaving CPR to get him breathing again.

“Losing him was not an option, and I just wasn’t going to allow it,” said the plucky 22-year-old.

The near-tragedy happened as Lauren’s dad Alec, 52, was working on his BMW in the garage of the Kornacki home in Glen Allen, Va.

ALEC HAD PROPPED UP THE CAR WITH A JACK and was on the floor underneath it when the jack slipped. He was pinned by the car’s weight and quickly passed out from the agonizing pain.

That’s when Lauren happened to come out of the house and peek into the garage. Stunned by the horrific sight, she yelled for her mother to call 911 and ran over to her dad.

“His arm was pinned to his chest by the car,” she said.

Lifesaver Lauren Kornacki flanked by her mom Liz and dad Alec

“He wasn’t breathing. His heart was stopped.”

Lauren, who recently graduated from the University of Mary Washington, said the sight of “the most important person” in her life trapped under the car nearly took her breath away. But she kept her presence of mind.

The car was tipped unevenly, sort of like a table with a short leg.

Lauren, whose family members are devout Catholics, prayed for strength, and with a mighty shove she got the BMW off her dad just enough to relieve the pressure. She then pulled her 210-pound father out from beneath the vehicle and went to work to get him breathing again. Fortunately, Lauren had been trained for it. She’d learned CPR techniques for a summer lifeguard job and had recently taken a refresher course.

Lauren started alternating between chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and her father was already breathing again by the time help arrived from a nearby fire-rescue station.

Dad Alec, a senior business systems analyst at Capital One, suffered broken ribs and other fractures and spent nearly a week in ICU.

When he recovered enough to call home to thank the daughter who had saved his life, he got too choked up to talk.

“He was on the phone to me but started to cry and just couldn’t get the words out, so Mom had to take over,” recalled Lauren, who says she didn’t really need her dad to express the gratitude she knew he felt.

Alec Kornacki is now home following his near-death experience last July 28, and has recovered well from his injuries. Meanwhile, Lauren landed a job in the solar energy field. And although she has two sisters who also know CPR still at home, Lauren said: “There’s no way we’re letting my father back in the garage.”

VINCE VAUGHN has a bit of advice for his new pal Robert Pattinson: Dump your cheating girlfriend!

The two actors struck up a friendship recently while discussing a new film project, and a source says 26-year-old Robert opened up to the older and wiser Vince, 43, about his troubled relationship with actress Kristen Stewart.

THE YOUNG COUPLE SPLIT LAST year after Kristen admitted she'd had a fling with Rupert Sanders, who directed her in "Snow White & the Huntsman." But Hollywood heartthrob Robert soon took her back.

"Vince said, 'That's a mistake – a big one,'" the source revealed. "He told Rob he knows how easy it is to fall into a routine, but when your girl cheats on you, you should take that as a sign that you should probably end things."

Robert fell for Kristen, 23, during the course of filming their five blockbuster "Twilight" films. Vince certainly is familiar with on-set romances – he began dating Jennifer Aniston while they were working on the romantic comedy "The Break-Up." They parted ways in 2006, and in 2010 Vince married Canadian-born realtor Kyla Weber, with whom he has a 2-year-old daughter.

"Vince said he and Jennifer had a great time together, but he can't imagine settling down with someone at 26, like Rob is doing – especially someone who cheated on him," said the source.

"Vince told Rob he was 40 before he was done sowing his wild oats."

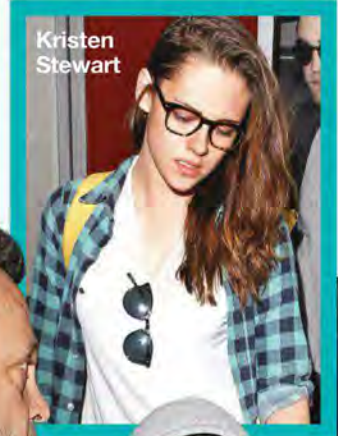

On April 5, Vince and Robert hit the town with mutual friend Joaquin Phoenix, attending a private party at L.A. restaurant Larchmont before heading off for drinks at the hip bar Por Vous. But despite the blossoming friendship, another insider says the handsome Brit isn't ready to follow Vince's sage advice.

"Vince got him thinking, for sure," the insider added, "but there's a level of comfort he has with Kristen that he's scared of losing."

Kardashians crisis

KRIS RIPS INTO LAMAR

EXCLUSIVE

Kris is concerned that the entire Kardashian empire could be at risk, says a source

Lamar claims the charity money is his

Reality mom fury at Khloe's hubby AFTER CHARITY SCANDAL EXPOSED

KHLOE KARDASHIAN's husband Lamar Odom is caught up in an ugly charity scam scandal, and sources say family matriarch Kris Jenner fears it will spark an FBI investigation that could eventually spread to the Kardashian empire. "Kris told Lamar he'd better handle this mess and or he will regret the day he met Khloe," said a source.

On March 28, ESPN reported that the basketball player's cancer charity for children, Cathy's Kids – which was named for Lamar's mother, who died of cancer – had not given a single dime to cancer-related causes. Yet it's raised an estimated $2.2 million since its inception in 2004. Instead, more than $1.3 million has been funneled into two elite youth traveling basketball teams.

When confronted by a reporter about the issue, Lamar barked: "It's my money," before walking out of the interview.

While a previous IRS audit found no evidence of wrongdoing, the recent revelations have aroused their interest, The ENQUIRER has learned exclusively. And Kris is furious that Khloe has been dragged into the drama. She's also deeply concerned that the rest of her family – as well as her $180 million empire – may eventually end up in the middle of a potential federal investigation.

KHLOE, 28, HAS PUBLICLY STOOD by her husband's side since the scandal broke. She's said that Lamar contributed 90 percent of the money raised by the foundation, and that the focus shifted from youth and cancer to helping underprivileged inner-city kids. She insists that none of the money went to Lamar or any member of his family.

Still, an insider says Khloe's defense of Lamar only makes her 57-year-old mom even more concerned.

"Kris thinks that Khloe should be distancing herself from him," said the source. "Kris knows that if the feds get involved, the family is an easy target."

Kris is reportedly so upset that she blasted Lamar, 33, behind closed doors. "She told him this fiasco could start to unravel, and once that happens, the authorities will start to look into Khloe's affairs," continued the source. "Then, one by one, all of the Kardashians will be on the hot seat – and it will be his fault."

Gary Snyder, a nationally recognized nonprofit expert who runs the industry publication "Nonprofit Imperative," told The ENQUIRER he believes it's important that the government – including the IRS and FBI – cracks down on the misuse of public funds.

"This organization does not belong to Lamar Odom," he explained. "With tax-exempt status, it's owned by the public."

Khloe has publicly stood by her husband's side

And David Bailey, publisher of "Virginia Capitol Connections" and a longtime consultant to nonprofits, added: "The IRS should lead the charge, and if necessary, the FBI should join the effort. (Lamar Odom) saying it's his money sounds like a confession."

Still another expert says Kris has good reason to be worried about the potential fallout. Craig Silverman, a former prosecutor in the Denver, Colo., District Attorney's Office, explained: "If you run and promote a charity and you don't deliver what you promise, that violates criminal and civil law. Aggressive prosecutors send people who do this to jail."

Lindsey Vonn's TWISTED LIFE EXPOSED!

DARK SECRETS TIGER'S NEW LOVER IS HIDING

■ Bustups ■ Therapy ■ Suicide drama

covered Kildow also got hammered with multiple federal tax liens amounting to more than a half-million dollars, despite his $250,000 salary.

At the time of the divorce, Linda's savings account held just $16 and her checking account was overdrawn by $100. Her husband had a checking account with just $750 and no savings. In divorce papers, Kildow told the court that he had been making "regular payments on the great majority of our financial obligations" while Linda was "engaged full time in sunbathing, getting manicures, taking art classes, receiving physical training from her personal trainer and engaging a headhunter to locate a suitable position for her."

To make matters even worse, Kildow has repeatedly run afoul of the law, amassing multiple driving violations including speeding and driving on a suspended license. His most recent bust came on March 15, due to an outstanding warrant regarding a 2012 traffic charge.

Insiders fear that when Lindsey's new beau Tiger, 37, finds out about her horrendous background, he'll be shocked. "If their relationship becomes more serious, there is going to be big trouble," said an observer. "When it comes to raising a family, their home life couldn't be more different."

"Lindsey is a lone wolf with no role model of a strong family or caring mother to draw on. This difference is bound to cause trouble."

In the meantime, it seems that about the only thing Lindsey's parents DO agree on is Tiger.

Linda told The ENQUIRER: "We are excited about Lindsey and Tiger being together. We really like him."

And her dad told us: "I like Tiger Woods as a person, and I support Lindsey in whatever she does."

Added a source: "Considering all Lindsey's been through, it's a miracle that she could become such a shining superstar in her own right."

LINDSEY'S EX TORCHES 'CHEATER' TIGER

Lindsey Vonn's ex-husband took a shot at her new lover Tiger Woods after the golfer was assessed a two-stroke penalty at the Masters. Thomas Vonn, 37, a former professional skier who was married to Lindsey for four years, tweeted sarcastically about Woods' illegal drop after hitting his ball into the water, saying: "You always have to keep an eye on those cheaters." Vonn signed off his tweet with a yellow smiley face.

BARBRA STREISAND is trapped in the middle of an ugly money battle over her $350 million fortune!

Friends say the superstar's hubby
James Brolin and son Jason Gould are each conniving to take control of her dough.

"James wants Barbra to write Jason out of her of his mother's tour, said the source.

"James suspects Jason is angling to take control of Barbra's finances now so he can secure himself a huge payday later," said the source.

As for Barbra, "she was hoping to have one

TRAVOLTA'S DIRTY DIVORCE EXPLODES

■ $220 million battle turns ugly | ■ Kelly's desperate for a fresh start | ■ Shocking past of John's new male friend

JOHN TRAVOLTA's marriage to Kelly Preston has exploded under the strain of his gay sex scandals, his indifference about her sputtering career and a mystery man with a shocking past who's come between them, say sources.

As The ENQUIRER recently reported, the two are facing a $220 million divorce, and sources say that John is desperate to avoid a messy, high-profile trial where all of his dirty laundry will be exposed.

In recent years, the "Saturday Night Fever" star has been plagued by accusations of sexual battery by several men, masseurs — two of whom brought lawsuits against him. Travolta's reps vehemently denied the claims and the lawsuits were eventually withdrawn. And his former pilot Doug Gotterba told The ENQUIRER that he was Travolta's gay lover for six years.

DESPITE THE ACCUSATIONS, THE actor has been scrambling to keep up the image that his 21-year marriage is stronger than ever. In fact, the couple smiled for the cameras and appeared to be the perfect family as they vacationed on Australia's Gold Coast with their 2-year-old son, Ben.

"John and Kelly put on a happy face while on vacation Down Under in early April," said an insider. "But the truth is that John rushed his family halfway around the world to smooth things out with Kelly and cover up her frustration about their union."

The latest blow to the marriage is Travolta's close friendship with a 42-year-old obsessed fan and occasional photographer for Travolta, who goes by the name of Rav Holly.

John, along with son Ben, visited Kelly on the set of her new sitcom, but neither of them looked very happy about it

The ENQUIRER can reveal that his real name is Todd Dwayne Holly, and sources say they were introduced by a mutual friend and initially bonded because they'd both lost their young sons. Travolta's boy Jett died at age 16, and Holly's son Patrick killed himself in his early 20s.

Holly, a photographer based in L.A., directed Travolta's widely ridiculed video, "I Think You Might Like It," which the actor made with his "Grease" co-star Olivia Newton-John and was released with their 2012 holiday album, "This Christmas."

As The ENQUIRER's exclusive photo shows, Holly has taken to dressing just like his idol — in a black T-shirt and jeans — and he's adopted the same hairstyle. Meanwhile, a source close to the Holly family says his photography studio is plastered with photos of the "Pulp Fiction" star, and Holly "constantly gushes about his friendship with John."

As The ENQUIRER previously reported, Travolta and Holly recently spent 28 hours together on a train ride from San Antonio, Texas, to L.A. An eyewitness on the train says that for most of the trip, they stayed in Holly's cramped compartment with the door locked and curtains drawn. A source close to Holly, however, insists he is not gay!

But Holly has been hiding a dark past from his famous pal. The ENQUIRER has discovered that Holly was arrested in 2002 for allegedly beating his then-14-year-old son Patrick and chaining him to a bed.

Officers responding to a tip found Patrick in the kitchen with a chain padlocked to his right ankle. The teenager had a "swollen blackened right eye" and "redness and swelling" to his left side, according to the affidavit.

Patrick said his father had beaten him after he took the family vehicle without permission, according to police.

THE TEEN ALSO SAID HIS FATHER had previously hit him in the back with a hockey stick, and tried to run him over while he was intoxicated.

"(Patrick)...stated that his mother and father had chained him to his bed to prevent him from leaving the residence," according to the affidavit.

Holly pleaded guilty to intentionally and knowingly causing bodily injury to Patrick in December 2002. He received four years probation and a $1,000 fine, but violated probation and was jailed almost a month later.

While behind bars, court documents say he made outrageous claims that the food and water were poisoned, leading a medical doctor to determine that Travolta's new pal "has a severe mental illness, major depressive disorder with psychotic features."

Sadly, Patrick killed himself with a gunshot to the head on Jan. 7, 2010.

"It's impossible to say for sure if Patrick's father abused him regularly, but Patrick let certain things slip from time to time, indicating their relationship was very strained," a former Holly family friend told The ENQUIRER.

According to court documents obtained by The ENQUIRER, Holly and his now ex-wife, Patricia, also filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy in 2004, owing nearly $75,000.

"It's no wonder (Holly) is hiding from his past and using a different

John's close relationship with photographer Rav Holly (at right) has Kelly upset, says a source. Below, the warrant for Holly's arrest for beating his son name in California," said the former family friend. "No doubt John Travolta will flip his lid when he finds out his new friend's real story"

The ENQUIRER caught up with Holly at a Long Beach, Calif., gas station on April 7, but when he was approached by a reporter and asked about his relationship with Travolta and the abuse charges against his son, he uttered "no comment" and drove off.

Another source told The ENQUIRER: "Kelly knows Rav and she doesn't care for him one bit, which makes John's friendship with him even worse for their marriage.

"John told Kelly his train trip with Rav was all business and begged Kelly not to divorce him. He repeated over and over again that he loves her, little Ben and [their 13-year-old daughter] Ella Bleu more than anything on earth."

As The ENQUIRER reported, Kelly hit her breaking point when John tried to convince her to pass on filming the sitcom pilot, "Keep Calm and Karey On," in L.A. He preferred her to be a stay-at-home mom in their Orlando, Fla.-area mansion, the only role she'd been playing since Jett's tragic death in 2009. Sources say that's when Kelly exploded and threatened to end their marriage if he didn't allow her to restart her career.

Sheila Osmond Frischknecht was placed on probation

OSMOND DAUGHTER BUSTED!

Mom of two PASSED BAD CHECK

COUNT 1 - ISSUING A BAD CHECK OR DRAFT, a Second Degree Felony

and charges that:

On or about April 09, 2011 at and within Sanpete County, State of Utah, the defendant, did issue or pass a check or draft for the payment of money, for the purpose of obtaining from any person, partnership, or corporation, any money, property, or other thing of value or saving

Dad Merrill Osmond

OFFICIAL DOCUMENT

THE Osmond family has been hit with another scandal – the 26-year-old daughter of Marie's brother Merrill was busted for writing a bad check for more than $5,000!

According to court documents obtained by The ENQUIRER, Sheila Osmond Frischknecht bounced the check in April 2011 in Sanpete County, Utah.

The Osmond siblings

"SHE GOT SUCKERED INTO AN Internet scam and took a big financial hit," a source close to Sheila told The ENQUIRER. "She was too embarrassed to ask her father for help, so she wrote a check to cover funds that she didn't have."

This isn't the first time that the child of an Osmond family member has run afoul of the law. Last July, Donny Osmond's son Jeremy was busted for discharging a firearm within the city limits of Cedar Hills, Utah.

While Jeremy got off with a fine, Sheila – a mom of two married to factory worker Brennan Frischknecht – pleaded guilty to a third-degree felony and was placed on 24 months' probation. She was also ordered to pay $5,123 in restitution, plus a $500 fine. Fortunately, her 59-year-old father never knew about the bust, said the source.

As The ENQUIRER has reported, Merrill – lead singer and bassist for The Osmonds band in the '70s – hit rock bottom while going through male menopause and even considered suicide.

But he's bounced back, thanks to Marie's support and a unique hormone replacement therapy.

Said the source: "I'm afraid that his daughter's arrest would have added to Merrill's woes."

Travolta responded by taking the rail journey with Holly, and even when he was in L.A., he wasn't seen with Kelly. But just after he returned to Florida, Travolta found out The ENQUIRER was set to report about Kelly's divorce threat and his long trip with Holly. At that point, the actor hightailed it to Kelly's side in California with son Ben.

"He showed up just in time to watch Kelly prance around the set in a pink bridesmaid's gown for a funeral scene in a graveyard," said the source.

"HE BOUGHT BEN A BAG OF M&M'S and let him dance on the hood of a crew member's car while doing his best to look like a supportive, loving hubby."

But not everybody was buying Travolta's attempt at playing happy family.

"John was on the set for about two hours, but he spent hardly any time with Kelly," said the source. "They both seemed very glum, cold and distant. Eventually, John and

Travolta's desperate DIVORCE COVER-UP

Ben left with the nanny while Kelly stayed on the set for another three hours."

Travolta's lack of support for Kelly's career is a real blow, sources say, since she's stood by him while he's been hit by a string of lurid gay scandals.

His reputation took another whack when a website uncovered documents it claims revealed Travolta's insurer paid $84,000 in hush money to the two men who filed sexual battery suits against him.

"John surrounds himself with straight, macho guys, reeling them in with exotic vacations and an almost bizarre level of attention before making physical advances toward them," said a source.

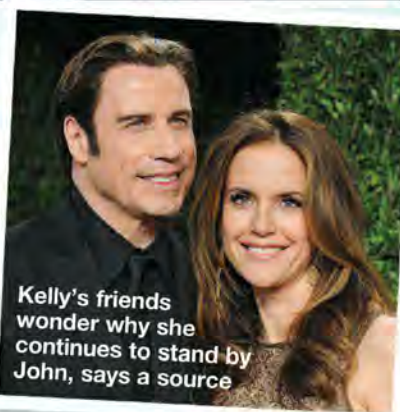

Another source added: "Now John is more desperate than ever to smooth things over with Kelly – she's been around long enough to know all John's darkest secrets. The last thing he wants is a messy public divorce where Kelly could reveal everything she knows, so now he's backtracking and trying to be the perfect husband."

PART OF TRAVOLTA'S DAMAGE control was whisking Kelly and Ben off to Australia, where they spent some highly visible hours mingling with the locals.

"John Travolta told me my son was gorgeous, which completely made my day," said Penny Ferguson, who was touring the Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary on April 8 with her 2-year-old, Aidan. "He was just so lovely and down to earth. He was making jokes and didn't act like he was anything special."

Incredibly, Kelly seemed to be playing along with John's act, sparking fears for her among her friends.

Kelly's friends wonder why she continues to stand by John, says a source

"Everyone is wondering what is wrong with Kelly," said a source. "She seems to go merrily along with John, accompanying him around the world and even showing him affection."

"But it's just a matter of time before she pulls the plug on their marriage. I mean, how much can one woman take?"

Jaws dropped when Liza showed up at a Big Apple event on April 10 with her puss as smooth as marble and stretched tighter than a drum

Minnelli's JOKER FACE

Legend Liza looks

JUST LIKE 'BATMAN' CHARACTER

LIZA MINNELLI has stunned fans with a "new" face that's making people wonder if she's auditioning for Heath Ledger's role as the Joker in the next "Batman" movie!

Back in January, the 67-year-old showbiz legend looked just like the Liza of "Cabaret" and Studio 54 fame with her fringed bangs and heavy eyebrows.

But jaws dropped at a Big Apple bash recently when a brand-spanking new Liza showed up – with her puss as smooth as marble and stretched tighter than a drum.

WHILE LIZA DENIES EVER HAVING surgery because she's "scared to death of it," an expert believes the "New York, New York" singer owes her "miracle rebirth" to an estimated $35,000 worth of procedures.

"Liza looks like she's had a total facial rejuvenation, likely incorporating a face-lift, brow-lift and eyelid surgery," Dr. Matthew Schulman, a board-certified cosmetic surgeon from New York who reviewed her photos, told THE ENQUIRER.

"She may have also had skin resurfacing with a chemical peel or laser treatment. I also suspect she's had Botox injections to smooth out her forehead, along with some fillers to erase the nasolabial folds running from her nose to the corners of her mouth."

But he's not very impressed with the results.

"I think she looks overdone and unnatural," he said. "Hopefully, this is recent work and Liza is still in the healing phase. After a few more months, things will relax a little."

Dr. Steve Fallick, a New Jersey cosmetic surgeon, added: "With all the procedures she's had, she looks asymmetric and horrible!"

ASHLEY JUDD is struggling to cope after being socked with a devastating double whammy, and friends fear she's on the verge of a breakdown!

The actress-turned-activist, 45, was still reeling after announcing her divorce from race car driver Dario Franchitti when she was blasted as "emotionally unbalanced" in a political dirty tricks campaign meeting.

Sources say the brutal verbal attack by her potential rival, Republican Sen. Mitch McConnell of Kentucky, sent her over the edge.

"TO HEAR THE TAPE OF SEN. McConnell's staff openly tearing her apart for some very personal issues cut Ashley to the bone," a source close to Judd told THE ENQUIRER.

"She's had a lot of bad stuff thrown at her in a very short time, and we worry that she may need long-term professional mental health help right now – before it's too late."

Ashley – star of "A Time To Kill" and "Twisted," and daughter and sister of country singers Naomi and Wynonna Judd – has a history of mental health issues.

In 2006, she spent 47 days at the Shades of Hope Treatment Center in Texas being treated for depression, insomnia and codependency. And she admitted in a "Today" show interview: "I was absolutely certifiably crazy."

Last January, she announced her 11-year marriage to three-time Indy 500 winner Franchitti was ending.

Soon after, Ashley – who's traveled the world to support humanitarian causes – began mulling a Democratic run for the Senate in her home state of Kentucky.

The actress – now playing the president's wife in "Olympus Has Fallen" – dropped those plans in late March, and she was blindsided when the taped comments of Sen. McConnell's staff were leaked.

On the tape, one aide says: "This sounds extreme, but she is emotionally unbalanced. I mean, Another aide then chimes in, inaccurately: “She was hospitalized for 42 days when she had a mental breakdown in the ‘90s,” apparently referring to her 2006 stay in the Texas facility.

JUDD FIRED BACK, SLAMMING SEN. McConnell for choosing “the politics of personal destruction.” Despite that tough talk, friends say the scandal has taken a heavy toll.

“Ashley is in a very fragile mental state right now,” her pal said. “When her marriage broke up, she lost the anchor that helped keep her mentally stable.

“We’re afraid she’s going to say, ‘What’s the point?’ and do something drastic – that’s why her closest friends are rallying around and giving her lots of love and support.

HOT-headed Rob Kardashian got himself into trouble with the law – and now sources say his protective mom Kris Jenner is desperately trying to keep her only son out of jail!

The problem began on March 27 when the 26-year-old “Keeping Up With the Kardashians” star took his shirt off in a West Hollywood gym parking garage after a workout session with celebrity trainer Gunnar Peterson. Rob, who recently packed on 40 pounds, blew up after a female photographer snapped a “money shot” of his tubby physique.

ACCORDING TO A COMPLAINT FILED by the photog, Rob was so irate he stole her camera’s memory card and smacked her in the face. Rob was handcuffed and briefly taken into custody, says the source. After questioning, he was released without any charges being filed, but the Beverly Hills Police Department is currently investigating a potential felony robbery charge, which is punishable by up to nine years in prison. Now Kardashian momager Kris has stepped in to track down the woman in a fran-

“Kris is calling all of her contacts and anybody else that might know who this woman is,” said a source. “She’s desperate to find this photographer so she can pay her off to get Rob out of trouble, and she’s throwing around HUGE dollar figures to make it happen.”

SO FAR, KRIS HASN’T HAD ANY luck, says the source.

“No one wants to help her because everyone knows that Rob has a horrible temper, and a lot of them feel he needs to finally face some consequences,” added the source.

The superstar actor forced Janet off his show, she claims

AFTER 20 years of feuding with fellow “Fresh Prince of Bel-Air” star Will Smith, the series’ original “Aunt Viv,” Janet Hubert, wants to call a truce.

“I am extending an olive branch to Will,” the 57-year-old actress told The ENQUIRER. “I want this whole ridiculous thing to stop right now.”

JANET’S CALL FOR PEACE CAME after talk-show host Wendy Williams recently asked former cast mate Tatyana Ali about the rift.

The bad blood stems back to the early 1990s, when Janet claims Will forced her off the hit NBC sitcom. She was replaced by actress Daphne Reid. The feud escalated last year after Janet blasted the box-office champ as an “egomaniac” and “punk” after he left her off of a “Fresh Prince Reunion” Facebook page.

Despite her past anger, Janet – who is producing a TV sitcom pilot and appearing in her one-woman show, “From Broadway to TV Now Back to Me” – wants to bury the hatchet.

“I would say to [Will], we need to heal this. You’ve said some things that were totally untrue and you know that they were untrue. I’ve said some things that I probably should

BLOODBATH IN BOSTON

HEROES & HORROR at the marathon

Smoke filled the street after the second explosion

BRAVE and bighearted heroes emerged in the horrific chaos of the bomb explosions that rocked the historic Boston Marathon on April 15.

As the world watched in horror, The ENQUIRER was on the scene to witness spectators and marathon runners alike risk their lives to help others.

Spectator John Ross, in the crowd at the finish line, was among hundreds who jumped into action.

"Somebody's leg flew by my head," he said. "I gave my belt to stop the blood."

And 35-year-old state trooper Roupen Bastajian – exhausted from just completing the 26.2-mile run – cast his fatigue aside to help the injured.

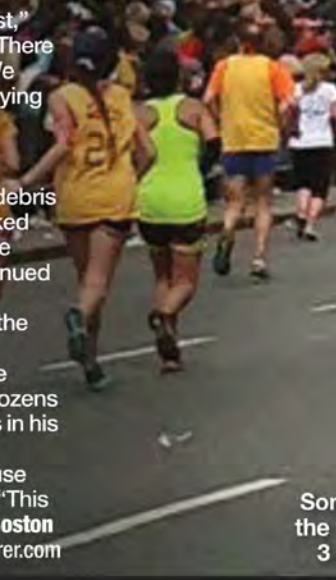

"I started running toward the blast," he said, overcome with emotion. "There were people all over the ground. We started grabbing tourniquets and tying (up their wounded) legs."

RESCUE WORKERS COURAGEOUSLY plunged into the blast area to pull debris off the injured as ambulances snaked into the area. And after crossing the finish line, some competitors continued running directly to Massachusetts General Hospital to give blood for the injured.

Corey Griffin, who lives above the finish line area, offered shelter to dozens of stunned runners and spectators in his condo.

"They have nowhere to go because everything is shut down," he said. "This is crazy."

LeAnn Rimes

PREGNANCY SHOCKER

The singer has put on a few extra pounds of pre-pregnancy weight

LeAnn and her hubby, actor Eddie Cibrian

Country cutie is EATING FOR TWO!

FIRST-TIME MOM

GOODBYE, bones...hello, curves!

LeAnn Rimes is sporting a fuller figure these days, and insiders tell The ENQUIRER she's packing on the extra pounds because she wants to get pregnant this year.

Doctors told the rail-thin country cutie that she and hubby Eddie Cibrian were going to have a tough time with their baby-making plans if she didn't start putting on some weight. So LeAnn's been upping her food intake.

AND THE BEST PART? Eddie LOVES her shapely new physique.

"For the last couple of years, LeAnn did everything she could to try and stay slim," said a source. "She believed Eddie loved stick-thin women like (his ex-wife) Brandi Glanville, so she wanted to be skinny too."

But to LeAnn's surprise – and relief – Eddie's more attracted to her now than ever!

"LeAnn's added about ten pounds since she went on her pre-pregnancy weight-gain plan," revealed the source. "And she says that since she gained a few curves, her man can't keep his hands off her."

The happy couple, who celebrate their second anniversary this month, enjoyed a romantic getaway in Puerto Rico the week of April 8, where they took a midnight dip in the ocean and strolled the moonlit beach in the rain.

When they got back to their room, the source says "they made mad, passionate love. LeAnn said it was one of the most romantic nights they've ever had together."

Meanwhile, LeAnn, 30, and Eddie, 39, are said to be shopping around a scripted reality show, which could draw inspiration from the ongoing drama between the singer and Brandi, the mother of Eddie's two sons.

"If she does get pregnant," said another source, "they think it will be great for the show."

"GOOD GIRL" Carrie Underwood and her hunky hockey hubby Mike Fisher are stuck in a face-off over when they should start their family.

The country superstar thinks having a baby right now would clip her booming career – and he's ready to shoot and score ASAP!

"Carrie and Mike have a happy marriage, but the baby issue is becoming a big bone of contention between them," a close source told The ENQUIRER. "If he had his way, Carrie would be pregnant tomorrow, but she keeps insisting now isn't the right time."

"CARRIE SAYS SHE CAN'T TAKE A year off from singing and still stay red-hot. They're poles apart and at the point where they almost have to agree to disagree."

The "Two Black Cadillacs" songbird, who turned 30 in March, has seen her career skyrocket since winning "American Idol" in 2005. She's scored 17 No. 1 hits and has topped 45 million in album sales.

While she's said in the past that Mike, 32, would be thrilled if they had seven children together,

Carrie recently admitted to an interviewer: "I don't think there will ever be a great time to have kids."

According to the source, Carrie has even told friends she's considered putting off motherhood until after she retires from singing.

"Carrie has never believed that she can have it all," the source added. "When she does decide to become a mother, she'll give it her all – the same way she's given everything she has to her career. But that day isn't anytime soon. Right now, her career is her baby."

Mischa Barton PACKS ON POUNDS!

AS the hot young star of FOX's hit teen drama "The O.C.," Mischa Barton once had the world at her feet – but now she's packed on so much weight friends fear she's all washed up at age 27!

The former model used to be one of Hollywood's sizzling it-girls. Then "The O.C." was canceled in 2007, and her career nosedived. She was also busted on DUI charges and reportedly entered rehab.

ON APRIL 8, Mischa shocked fans when she stepped out in Los Angeles in ultra-short Daisy Dukes that highlighted her ballooning hips and extra pounds.

"Mischa's friends are terrified she's using food to cope with her problems," revealed a close source. "She went from being one of Hollywood's hottest actresses to a relative nobody, and it has taken an extreme toll on her confidence."

To make matters even worse, the source says the "Sixth Sense" actress is strapped for cash and is stuck with a costly eight-bedroom house. She purchased the 7,607-square-foot white elephant in 2005 during the height of her fame and the real estate boom, and she unsuccessfully tried to unload it in 2010 and 2011. Now, she's desperately trying to rent it out, but she's had no luck because she's asking a staggering $27,000 a month.

Despite her setbacks, the actress remains determined to jump-start her career, but so far she's had limited success.

SHE'S IN TWO FILMS THIS YEAR – "A Resurrection" and "Bhopal: A Prayer for Rain" – but neither is expected to do much for her career. She's also slated to star in a British film.

Mischa has also tried her hand in the business world, opening a London boutique. But she hasn't found any luck with that venture as insiders say her overpriced items have failed to catch on.

The singer – with one of her kids – was much heavier just three years ago

WOW! After years of struggling with her weight, Lisa Presley has dropped 50 pounds and looks sensational in a bikini.

"She's back to having the body she had 10 years ago and has never looked better," declared a family friend.

Elvis' 45-year-old daughter attributes her amazing weight-loss success to trading the Tinseltown rat race for the simple life in the English countryside.

Proof of her bangin' new body is spectacularly evident in recent photos that show a bikini-clad Lisa Marie strutting her stuff on vacation in Hawaii.

LISA MARIE'S JOURNEY TO better health began in 2010, after she gave up what she called the "self-absorbed" life in Los Angeles. She relocated to the tiny village of Rotherfield in East Sussex – about 35 miles south of London – with husband Michael Lockwood and three of her four children.

After moving to a 50-acre farm, she discovered her stress evaporating – and along with it her binge eating.

"Lisa is happier than she has been in a long time," confided the family friend.

"If she is not at the local pub enjoying her favorite dishes, she

"The move to England was the best thing for her mentally and physically."

The 5-foot-3 rocker has lost and gained a dramatic amount of weight over the years.

By March 2010, she had ballooned to 165 pounds, as The ENQUIRER revealed.

She was 42, the same age as her beloved dad when he died, and vowed to lose weight – but without dieting.

"These days Lisa Marie is eating right, mostly organic food," said the source. "The fat has just melted away and she's been able to get back to 115 pounds with hardly any effort.

"Not many middle-aged women can rock a bikini like Lisa Marie. Her daddy would be proud."

THE secrets that Michael Jackson took to his grave about the paternity of his three children could now explode in court!

In a bid to keep those secrets, the late superstar's mother Katherine pleaded with a judge to disregard the identity of his children's biological parents during the $40 billion wrongful death suit she's filed against concert promoter AEG Live.

The judge agreed to keep the paternity of Prince, 16, Paris, 15, and Blanket, 11, out of court. But sources say the information may yet become public during the upcoming trial, which could drag on for months.

"KATHERINE HAS CLEARLY BEEN told by her attorneys that AEG wants to explore the rumors about the children's paternity to create doubt about whether they are his true beneficiaries," a Jackson family insider

Dr. Conrad Murray was convicted of involuntary manslaughter told The ENQUIRER. "Now she's doing everything possible to prevent the children – and the public – from learning how these kids actually came into the world."

Katherine's lawsuit demands that AEG Live pay Michael's heirs, including his children, a whopping $40 billion in damages related to their hiring and supervising of Dr. Conrad Murray, who's been convicted of involuntary manslaughter in Michael's drug-related death on June 25, 2009. And the 82-year-old family matriarch took a dramatic turn toward winning the case on March 14, when her lawyers filed a bombshell legal motion in Los Angeles Superior Court, arguing that "evidence intended to show that Michael Jackson is not the biological father of his children is irrelevant" to the suit. The motion also said: "Evidence intended to show who the biological mother is of the children is also irrelevant" to the case.

Documents claim that only Blanket (below left) has Michael's DNA, and Paris and Prince were fathered by different sperm donors

Michael's mom fights to stop truth coming out about Prince, Paris & Blanket

While the judge agreed with Katherine's argument, sources say her legal victory may be short-lived. According to a published report, sources within AEG claim the company has sworn affidavits, birth records and other material containing "irrefutable proof" that only Blanket has Michael's DNA, and Prince and Paris were fathered by different sperm donors.

The acknowledged mother of Prince and Paris is former medical assistant Debbie Rowe, who was married to Michael from 1996 to 1999.

But as The ENQUIRER reported in July 2009, widespread reports alleged Debbie's boss, Michael's dermatologist Dr. Arnold Klein, fathered Prince and Paris, which Klein has denied. Other sources claimed the two were the result of an anonymous donor.

"If AEG presents irrefutable proof that the two oldest children are not Michael Jackson's biological children, they could actually get the upper hand in the case," celebrity attorney Raoul Felder told The ENQUIRER.

Prince and Paris' mom, Debbie Rowe. On right, Dr. Arnold Klein

"It's sad, but it would mean the children have no legal standing."

Meanwhile, Katherine fears Blanket could inherit some of Michael's health problems, including the skin condition vitiligo and the autoimmune disease lupus, said the source.

"Right now, she's watching all three kids closely and desperately trying to stop AEG from ruining their lives," said the family insider. "The last thing Katherine wants is for family secrets to be blurted out in court."

COUNTERFEITER IS GENUINE IDIOT

He tries to return printer with bogus bills inside

Jared Carr wouldn't leave after store employees refused to accommodate him

CRACKPOT crook Jared Carr wanted to return his printer – but when he took it to Walmart he left his counterfeit $100 bills inside! Not only that, he also picked a fight with the clerks at the Walmart in Lake Hallie, Wis., insisting on a refund even after the fake money was discovered.

Then, when the cops arrived, he fought and threatened to harm them before he was finally carted off to jail, where cops say they found three more counterfeit $100 bills in his pockets.

“He goes to Walmart to return a printer and doesn’t have a receipt, has his counterfeit bills still lodged in it, and wanted to argue with the clerks to get half-price back. Then he resists arrest,” recalled Lake Hallie Police Chief Cal Smokowicz. “He’s not the brightest bulb in the room.”

Lame-brained Carr, 37, was charged with attempted theft by fraud, forgery and resisting arrest. He additionally had two felony warrants for burglary and armed robbery from a neighboring county. He’s currently being held while awaiting trial.

The accused counterfeiter’s blundering crime spree came to a screeching halt on the afternoon of March 7, when the eagle-eyed Walmart clerks contacted police to report that Carr, of West Bend, Wis., was giving them trouble while trying to return a printer.

He had no receipt proving that he was the owner of the printer or even the location where it had been purchased. When clerks looked inside the machine, they found a photocopied page with two counterfeit $100 bills printed on it.

INSTEAD OF TRYING TO MAKE A run for it, Carr began to argue with the clerks, trying to convince them to give him back half the cost of the printer. The employees turned down his request, but Carr stubbornly refused to leave the store.

Chief Smokowicz said the paper Carr had left in the printer contained a hole where it seemed that another phony $100 had been carefully cut out.

“None of them looked professional,” said the chief about the bogus bills. “The paper used to print the fakes was a heavyweight printer paper and the colors were off, a little too blue.”

“In a dimly lit bar they might pass, but under the bright lights of a bank or convenience store someone would have caught the half-baked scheme.”

DRESSED to THRILL

ZOE SALDANA

The "Star Trek" beauty gives great leg! Zoe – she's Uhura – gets glam in a long-sleeve top and slit floral skirt with a sheer black polka-dot inset by Givenchy and Jimmy Choo heels.

ZACHARY QUINTO

Are there tailors in outer space? Zachary ditches his "Star Trek" Spock ears for a hipster baby-blue suit by DSquared2 that needs to be let out a bit. It's just a smidge too tight.

ANNA CAMP

The "Pitch Perfect" star hits a hot note in a figure-hugging Herve Leger bandage dress. Love the pop of color she gets from Rupert Sanderson pumps and a Jimmy Choo purse.

SELENA GOMEZ

She's the gold standard! The singer razzle-dazzles in a long-sleeve Julien Macdonald gold-fringed minidress and champagne-colored Jimmy Choo heels. Her Dutch braid is awesome.

U.S. Company Offers Ingenious Solution To SAVE YOUR MARRIAGE

FOR LESS THAN $20!

MARRIAGE PROBLEM:

Many marriage mates have different opinions about comfortable sound level when watching TV or listening to music! Some prefer higher volume, some prefer lower volume. Is it still possible to live a happy life together?

THE SOLUTION:

An innovative Sound Amplifier, called Ear-Pro IQ, lets you listen to TV and radio at your own preferred sound level, without disturbing your marriage partner! Problem solved – and one of the more annoying marriage issues eliminated!

Company spokesperson:
"We have a hard time keeping up with the demand!"

The super-boost in volume makes it so easy to join conversations from a distance, listen to TV and get back in the game!

Here's one U.S. company that's working overtime (and hiring!) to fulfill all the orders that are coming in from all over the U.S.! Americans of all ages are lining up to get their hands on their All New Ear-Pro IQ – the virtually invisible Sound Amplifier with crystal clear sound!

It used to cost a fortune to get a personal sound amplifier with good sound quality. However, one company is changing that, and has turned the industry upside down with a top-of-the-line solution, for less than $20.

How can they do this.... The company explains, "Personal Sound Amplifiers have been around for a long time. What has changed the most is the design and size. Each year they get smaller and smaller, yet still retain their core ability to amplify sound for anyone."

"Our latest sound amplification device, Ear-Pro IQ™, offers the same advanced technology, but at a price anyone can afford. We also cut out the middleman and sell directly to the consumer. We buy in large quantities and pass the savings on to the buyer. Simply put, there's no reason to pay a fortune any longer!" The public's response from men and women to Ear-Pro IQ has been overwhelming. "We are sometimes out of stock for a few days. We can't make them as fast as people are buying them."

The company believes the Ear-Pro IQ is highly-popular right now for 3 distinct reasons:

The lightweight design with exceptional amplification power makes it a bargain for only $19.95.

American Company Shocks The Public By Offering Premium Level, Virtually Invisible Sound Amplifier For Less Than $20.

1) The sound quality is exceptional. That's why a person buys Ear-Pro IQ in the first place. Because they want to make hearing other people, TVs, radios etc, easier. And the advanced micro-electronic amplification technology in each Ear-Pro IQ does not disappoint. Buyers quickly see that Ear-Pro IQ truly delivers crystal-clear sound reception.

2) It's nearly invisible. Many people are sensitive about this topic, and don't really want any listening device to be seen. So Ear-Pro IQ was designed to be ultra-small, lightweight and very comfortable. In fact, the clear tube design makes it almost invisible. Ear-Pro IQ users report that it's so incredibly discreet that only they know it's there.

3) The price is absolutely astounding for the quality you get. Ear-Pro IQ supercharges your hearing – increases the weakest sound to audible levels – at a super low price that anyone can afford.

Those are the 3 reasons why most people upgrade to Ear-Pro IQ. But after they start using the amazing device, their life literally changes. With Ear-Pro IQ, all this becomes a reality:

They can hear everything easier... the TV, the stereo, the car radio – without turning it up and disturbing others.

They can join in conversations they used to avoid – and they don't miss a word.

They can bring it to the theater or the movies and not miss any of the action.

They can hear the doorbell, a knock on the front door, or a car horn while driving.

- The sound clarity will blow your mind (and for this price – amazing)!
- The clear tube makes it almost invisible!
- Incredibly discreet design – only you know it's there!
- Small, lightweight and very comfortable!
- Fits the contour of your ear!
- Supercharges your hearing – increases the weakest sound to audible levels!
- No endless frequent battery changes, thanks to energy-efficient construction!
- Listen to conversations without problems!
- Sound so clear you can hear a pin drop!
- Adjustable volume control!

They can hear all nature's beautiful sounds.

And they can hear what others are saying – even if they're far away.

Each Ear-Pro IQ has adjustable volume control, and fits both the left and right ear. Each one also comes complete with battery that holds approximately 100 hours of listening time. You also get 6 rubberized earplugs in different sizes, so you can enjoy a customized fit, regardless of ear size.

You can order Ear-Pro IQ directly from the company risk free for only $19.95 each by calling 1-800-550-5700. They are not sold in stores. And the company is so confident you'll see a quick improvement, they back Ear-Pro IQ with a Full 90-day Money Back Guarantee.

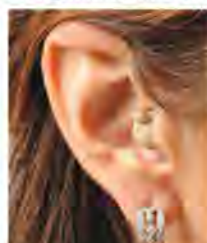

If you don't get the results you're happy with within 90 days, simply send it back for a full refund (less S/H). No questions asked.

And for a limited time they'll also send you a 4-pack of batteries for only $5.99. Each battery has approximately 100 hours of listening time.

Call now 1-800-550-5700.

New hope for men and women of all ages.

Ear-Pro IQ boasts a nearly invisible design for those who are sensitive to having a device in their ear.

Amazing Reader's Offer:
~~NOT $99.95~~
$19.95

"We often laugh when we see our competitor's advertising where they don't show their price – instead they want you to call for a 'very special offer'! Why? Take a guess!"

This is a sound amplification device. Not intended for medical purposes. For additional information, see our website.

All this is included in your kit:

- Ear-Pro IQ advanced sound amplifier
- 6 earpieces – to make sure the unit will fit all ears
- Battery for one hundred hours of listening time
- Cleaning brush
- Instruction manual

How to get your unit:

EXCLUSIVE
INTERVIEW

Jonathan Winters DIED LAUGHING

LEGENDARY funnyman Jonathan Winters never got over the loss of his beloved wife of 60 years and hid his heartbreak by doing what he loved most – bringing laughter to others.

Despite spending his declining years in a wheelchair, Winters practiced his craft almost until the day he died. The 87-year-old TV and movie star, who hosted his own TV variety shows in the '50s, '60s and '70s, passed away on April 11 of natural causes at his Montecito, Calif., home.

"He missed his wife dearly but filled his loss by working," his longtime friend and agent Richard Lawrence told The ENQUIRER in an exclusive interview.

"He loved his job and worked up until two weeks before he died."

THE RUBBER-FACED COMIC'S

final gift to fans was recording the voice of Papa Smurf for "The Smurfs 2."

"He was naturally funny," praised Lawrence. "I always loved getting his phone calls because it was like getting tickets to a comedy show."

But Jonathan's good nature hid a pain harbored in his heart ever since his wife Eileen lost a 20-year battle with breast cancer in 2009.

It was Eileen who sparked his showbiz career by encouraging him to enter a local Dayton, Ohio, talent show. He eventually headed to New York City in 1953 with just $56.46 in his pocket.

Winters soon became a regular on "The Jack Paar Show" and "The Tonight Show," and he starred in big-screen comedies including "It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World" and "The Loved One."

A whole new generation discovered his talent through his role as a recurring character on "Mork & Mindy" in the 1980s, as well as his

In recent years, Winters – who is survived by two children and five grandchildren – could hardly walk and went outside only with the assistance of caregivers.

"Losing someone so close is never easy," said Lawrence, "but he lived a nice long life."

FRIENDS fear TV legend James Garner has only a few short weeks to live after suffering another debilitating stroke, The ENQUIRER has learned exclusively.

The former "Rockford Files" star was surrounded by family and a few close pals at his Brentwood, Calif., home on April 7 to mark his 85th birthday, but sources say it was a somber celebration.

"James is fading fast," a close source disclosed. "(His wife) Lois and the rest of his family want to make him as comfortable as possible. They want to see him live out his final days at home, not in a hospital."

"HE'S MADE IT LONGER THAN anyone expected, but he's very ill, and his friends are afraid he could be gone in a few weeks."

Garner – who shot to fame in the '50s as TV's "Maverick" – hasn't been seen in public since 2008, the year he suffered a catastrophic stroke and plunged into a deep depression.

Since the stroke, Garner has been confined to a wheelchair, slurs his words and is virtually homebound. Sadly, the actor suffered another "mini-stroke" more recently, confirmed a longtime pal.

"He never recovered from the first stroke, and the second stroke, which was hushed up,

REPORTS of a sex scandal at the elite private school attended by President Obama's daughters have exploded in the media – but it was old news to ENQUIRER readers!

In mid-April, media outlets reported a trial date has been set for a $10 million lawsuit against the Sidwell Friends School, involving a school psychologist who's been accused of carrying on an extramarital affair with a pupil's mother.

only weakened him more," said the pal. "He's been cheating death for a long time."

Garner, who has been married to Lois for 56 years and has two daughters, has faced numerous health woes.

A longtime smoker, he underwent quintuple bypass heart surgery in 1988. Just three months later, he needed another operation for a potentially deadly aortic aneurysm.

THEN, IN 1994, SURGERY TO CLEAR a blood clot in his leg led to a staph infection. And he was raced to the hospital twice in the late 1990s because of blood clots in his leg.

Garner has also struggled with personal loss. He's had a tough time getting over the 2011 death of his older brother Jack, says the source, and still mourns the loss of close friends Paul Newman and Peter Graves, who died in 2008 and 2010, respectively.

"James loves Lois and their daughters, but he's fought the good fight," added the source. "He's ready to join others he dearly misses."

Egg whites help HYPERTENSION

★ Egg whites could reduce high blood pressure, according to Clemson University experts.

When researchers fed egg white extracts to lab rats with hypertension, blood pressure went down equal to the effect of low-dose blood pressure drugs.

Further research is required, say scientists, but results are promising.

Good news! Each

seven-gram increase in total daily fiber intake can trigger a seven percent decrease in first-time stroke risk, say British researchers.

One serving of whole wheat pasta, plus two servings of fruits or vegetables, provides about seven grams of fiber.

"Greater intake of fiber-rich foods – such as whole-grains, fruits, vegetables and nuts – are important for everyone, and especially for those with stroke risk factors like being overweight, smoking and having high blood pressure," says University of Leeds study author Diane Threapleton.

The American Heart Association recommends consuming at least 25 grams of fiber daily. Six to eight servings of grains and eight to 10 servings of fruits and vegetables can provide the recommended amount.

DIETARY FIBER reduces stroke

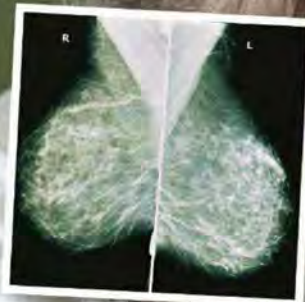

Breast cancer risk is increased in women who take the combined hormone therapy of estrogen plus progestin to relieve menopausal symptoms, and it may also increase the chances of dying from the disease.

However, starting the therapy 10 years after menopause had a reduced breast cancer risk as opposed to starting closer to menopause.

Researchers compared postmenopausal women whose mammograms had been normal within the prior two years. Some took estrogen and progestin, while others did not.

"This study shows that women who begin the hormonal therapy of estrogen plus progestin closer to menopause are at greater risk of breast cancer than women starting 10 years after menopause," declares Dr. Rowan T. Chlebowski of the Los Angeles Biomedical Research Institute.

"Women should consult with their physicians and consider the potential risks of any hormonal therapy to help relieve the symptoms of menopause."

Hormones linked to BREAST CANCER

Have trouble sleeping? A new, improved formula of Sleep MD can help you quickly fall into blissful slumber and wake up refreshed, according to the manufacturers.

An over-the-counter supplement, Sleep MD contains the hormone melatonin along with hops flower, valerian root and other natural ingredients that help provide relief from occasional insomnia. Multiple studies have shown that melatonin has a significant impact on sleep onset.

"Sleep MD is the restful way to a great day," say the manufacturers. "Take Sleep MD tonight and wake up refreshed tomorrow."

Sleep MD can be found at Walmart.

Chinese medicine FIGHTS DIABETES

Traditional Chinese medicine could be a key weapon in the treatment of Type 2 diabetes, according to Australian and Chinese researchers.

A new study evaluated 800 adults with Type 2 diabetes and found that conventional drugs worked better when used alongside Chinese medicine.

The University of Queensland's Dr. Sanjoy Paul says patients treated with traditional Chinese medicine were more than a third less likely to experience dangerously low levels of blood sugar than those treated with a standalone traditional antidiabetic drug. "They were also less likely to experience other symptoms of diabetes, including fatigue, hunger and palpitation."

FAMOUS QUOTES FROM YOUR FAVORITE PEOPLE

Cryptograms are coded messages. To solve the Cryptogram, each coded letter must be replaced by the answer letter in the box overhead. When you solve the code for a letter, write the answer letter in the box everywhere the coded letter appears. Look for common words and letter patterns to break the code. Words like AND, I, THE and A are found frequently. Common word endings are ING, S and E.

4 x 3 1/4 in. Rosary: 33 in.
chain with 6-in. drop

With the words Habemus papum, "We have a new pope," faithful believers around the world embraced a new leader in Jorge Mario Bergoglio, who chose the name "Francis" to honor St. Francis of Assisi. Humble, caring, and a champion of the poor, Pope Francis is the first Pontiff of Latin American heritage and the first Jesuit in the history of the Holy Church. His election as the 266th Pope on March 13, 2013, was cheered around the world as the advent of a new era of unity, humility and brotherhood.

A Precious Tribute on Fine Porcelain

Now the Pope who has already touched millions of lives inspires an exclusive commemorative music box, hand-crafted of triple-fired Heirloom Porcelain®. Featuring his first official appearance in Vatican City, the "His Holiness, Pope Francis" music box is graced with 22K gold designs and ruby crystal gems. A lovely bead rosary with praying-hand medallions and a prayer card are included FREE. A Bradford Exchange Exclusive, the edition is not available in stores. Order now at $59.99*, payable in two installments of $29.99 each, backed by our 365-day money-back guarantee. Send no money now, just mail the coupon today.

To Honor the Election of
Pope Francis

The Prayer of St Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your Peace,
Where there is hatred,
let me sow Love;
Where there is injury, Pardon;
Where there is doubt, Faith;
Where there is despair, Hope;
Where there is darkness, Light;
Where there is sadness, Joy.
O Divine Master,
grant that I may not seek so much to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to Love.
For it is in giving that we receive it is in pardoning that we are pardoned and in dying that we are born to eternal life.
Amen

What's hot this week

Aisha Tyler and
Daniel Dae Kim

Hawaii Five-0

Monday, April 29, 10 p.m. ET, CBS

"The Talk" co-host Aisha Tyler guest-stars tonight as talk-show host Savannah Walker who is allowed to follow Five-0 for a day, along with her crew. But the day turns deadly when the team has a run-in with McGarrett's (Alex O'Loughlin) arch nemesis, Wo Fat (Mark Dacascos), and Savannah and her crew get more action than they bargained for in this media-minded and thrill-packed all-new episode. Scott Caan, Daniel Dae Kim, Grace Park, Masi Oka and Michelle Borth also star.

The Big C: Hereafter (Limited Series Event)

Monday, April 29,
10 p.m. ET, Showtime

Cathy's (Laura Linney) time on this planet may be growing shorter, but the episodes of this meditational, inspirational and just plain sensational series are getting longer as "The Big C" moves from its 30-minute format to a full hour. These final four episodes chronicle Cathy's last days dealing with her everyday life in the face of her impending death. Tonight, Cathy plans a "sweet sixteen" for her son Adam (Gabriel Basso) and gets a big surprise in chemotherapy when she finds her cranky doctor

Hickey & Linney

(special guest star Alan Alda) in the seat next to her. Oliver Platt and John Benjamin Hickey also star. Brian Dennehy, Michael Ray Escamilla, and Kathy Najimy

Warehouse 13 (Mid-Season Premiere)

Monday, April 29, 10 p.m. ET, Syfy

The hit "Indiana Jones" meets "The X Files" series returns in a new time slot tonight to pick up where the mid-season cliffhanger finale left off. Last time out, Artie (Saul Rubinek) infected the Warehouse Team and the world with the deadly "Sweating Sickness" released through an artifact known as the Black Orchid. Now it's up to Pete (Eddie McClintock), Myka (Joanne Kelly), Claudia (Allison Scagliotti) and Steve (Aaron Ashmore) to reverse what Artie has done. If they fail, the world will be overcome by the deadliest plague since medieval times. But the team is already showing symptoms as they race to undo Artie's faux pas of pandemic proportions. James Marsters guest-stars as Prof. Sutton.

Dates from Hell

Friday, May 3, 10:00 p.m. ET, Investigation Discovery

We've all had our share of bad dates, but the people in this true-life "love gone bad" series were lucky to escape with their lives. Tonight, lonely 15-year-old Danielle meets a great guy named Brian online. But when she takes this budding cyber-romance to the next level, she falls into the deadly trap of a deviant predator. Her only chance of survival: endure his demented fantasies while using her wits to beat him at his own sick and twisted head game. If you think you've met your mate online, see this episode first to make sure you don't meet your maker too!

JIMMY FALLON is gearing up to take over Jay Leno's job as host of "The Tonight Show" after NBC airs the Winter Olympics next year. The hilariously funny 38-year-old first made a name for himself on "Saturday Night Live," then went on to become an after-hours staple with his own "Late Night With Jimmy Fallon." With his new gig now official, The ENQUIRER has dug up some little-known facts about the funnyman exclusively for our readers!

"SNL" cast during Jimmy's tenure

■ As a child, Jimmy was such a fan of "Saturday Night Live" that he and his older sister would reenact the "clean parts" of the show, which his parents taped for him.

■ Jimmy was a computer science major at the College of Saint Rose in Albany, N.Y., but switched to communication in his senior year, dropping out a semester shy of a degree to pursue comedy in L.A.

■ Jimmy, along with his sister Gloria, wrote the humorous book "I Hate This Place: The Pessimist's Guide to Life" in 1999. He has also written a children's book called "Snowball Fight!"

■ In 1998, Jimmy had a small role as a photographer on an episode of the Michael J. Fox TV show "Spin City."

■ "Late Night with Jimmy Fallon" first aired on March 2, 2009, with a stellar lineup of guests, including Robert De Niro, Justin Timberlake, Nick Carter and musical guest Van Morrison.

■ He once dated actress Winona Ryder

■ Following the Boston Red Sox's World Series-clinching game over the St. Louis Cardinals in 2004, Jimmy ran onto the field at Busch Memorial Stadium with Drew Barrymore to film a scene for their movie "Fever Pitch."

■ He has a golden retriever puppy named "Gary Frick" – and it's a GIRL!

LEGAL NOTICE

TO ALL PERSONS IN THE UNITED STATES WHO PURCHASED QUICKTRIM PRODUCTS FOR WEIGHT LOSS BETWEEN AUGUST 14, 2009 AND MARCH 1, 2013

This Is Not An Advertisement Or Attorney Solicitation.

Read This Notice Carefully. A Class Action Lawsuit May Affect Your Rights.

A settlement has been preliminary approved by the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Bernardino of a class action lawsuit relating to the QuickTrim Weight Loss System® and its component products: QuickTrim Sugar & Carb Cheater®, QuickTrim Fast Cleanse®, QuickTrim Extreme Burn®, QuickTrim Burn & Cleanse®, QuickTrim Hot Stix®, QuickTrim Fast Shake®, QuickTrim Satisfy®, and QuickTrim Celluslim® (together, the "Products").

This notice is only a summary. A detailed notice of your rights is available at www.anayasupplementsettlement.com, or by writing to or calling the Settlement Administrator at the address or toll-free number below.

The Litigation. The Plaintiff challenges as improper certain weight loss claims made by Quicktrim in its packaging, labeling and marketing for the Products. Quicktrim vigorously denies these allegations and denies any claims of wrongdoing. The Court has not ruled on the merits of Plaintiff's claims or Quicktrim's defenses.

Who Is Included In The Settlement? The Settlement Class includes all persons in the United States who purchased QuickTrim Weight Loss System® or any of its component products between August 14, 2009 and March 1, 2013 ("the Class Period").

The Settlement. Quicktrim and its related Defendants have agreed to provide the following benefits to the Settlement Class:

Group A-1 Class Members: Each Settlement Class Member who purchased a Quicktrim Product directly from Quicktrim will automatically receive 50% compensation of the Purchase Price of the Products unless they elect to receive a coupon to be redeemed at a retailer for Products with a retail value of twice the purchase price of the Product(s). If you decide that you want to receive a coupon instead of receiving an automatic compensation, you must submit a claim form.

Group A-2 Class Members: Each Settlement Class Member who purchased a Quicktrim Product from a retailer and who provides copies of a valid receipt, cancelled check or credit card statement showing that they purchased a Quicktrim Product will choose either: (a) compensation of fifty percent (50%) of the purchase price of the Quicktrim Product(s) purchased or (b) a coupon which can be redeemed at a retailer for the Quicktrim Product(s) with a retail value equal to the full purchase price of the Quicktrim Products.

Group B Class Members: Each Settlement Class Member who does not have a valid receipt, cancelled check or credit card statement showing that they purchased a Quicktrim Product, but who provides a Certification by way of the Claim Form, via U.S. mail or through the Settlement website, affirming that they purchased a Quicktrim Product, will choose either: (a) compensation in the amount of 25% of the purchase price of the Quicktrim Product(s) purchased (up to two (2) products) or (b) a coupon which can be redeemed at a retailer for the Quicktrim Product(s) with a retail value not to exceed Thirty-Five Percent (35%) of the Purchase Price of the Products up to the amount of 2 Products not to exceed the combined retail value of $42.00 purchased during the Class Period

How Do I Make A Claim? Claim Forms are available at www.anayasupplementsettlement.com or by calling 1-866-328-1994. Unless you are a direct purchaser from Quicktrim (Group A-1) and have decided that you want to receive the automatic compensation instead of the coupon, you must complete a claim and have it postmarked no later than August 5, 2013 or submit a claim online at www.anayasupplementsettlement.com no later than 11:59 p.m. EST on August 5, 2013 in order to receive a possible settlement payment.

Other Options. If you do not want to be legally bound by the settlement (and receive no money from the settlement), your request for exclusion must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator at the address below and postmarked no later than July 25, 2013. If you stay in the settlement, you may also submit an objection to it by July 25, 2013. You may access the detailed notice at www.anayasupplementsettlement.com. If the settlement is approved, all Class Members who do not exclude themselves will be bound by any judgment entered and will give up any right to sue Defendants or related parties for any known or unknown claims relating to the Products' manufacture, formulation, sale, pricing, marketing, labeling, promotion or distribution.

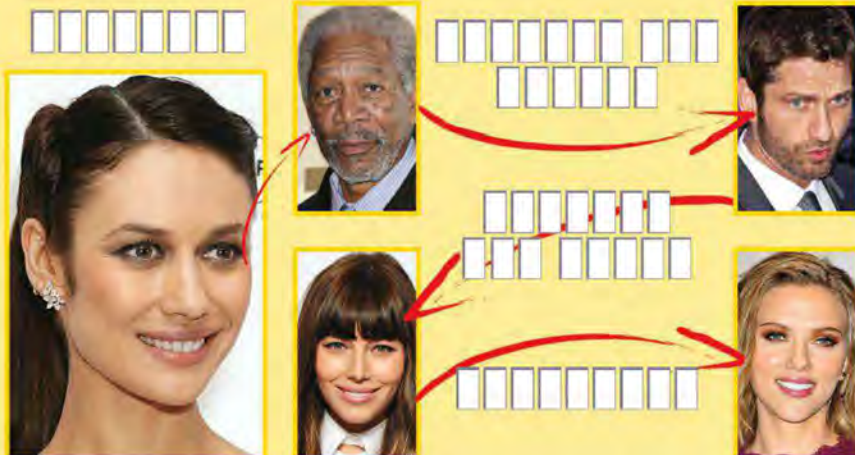

The Court will hold a hearing in this case Anaya v. Quick Trim LLC, et al. Case No. CIV VS 1201177 to consider whether to approve the settlement August 5, 2013, at 8:30 a.m. before the Hon. Bryan F. Foster, California Superior Court Judge in Courtroom S37 in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of San Bernardino.

THIS IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF THE SETTLEMENT AND YOUR RIGHTS. TO OBTAIN THE FULL CLASS NOTICE; FULL INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A CLAIM, EXCLUDING YOURSELF OR FILING AN OBJECTION; OR FOR MORE INFORMATION, GO TO WWW.ANAYASUPPLEMENTSETTLEMENT.COM, OR WRITE OR CALL THE SETTLEMENT ADMINISTRATOR AT PO BOX 2838, PORTLAND OR 97208-2838 OR 1-866-328-1994. DO NOT CALL OR WRITE TO THE COURT OR THE CLERK OF THE COURT. DO NOT CONTACT QUICKTRIM ABOUT THE SETTLEMENT. TELEPHONE REPRESENTATIVES ARE NOT AUTHORIZED TO CHANGE THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT OR THIS NOTICE.

Dated: March 1, 2013, Superior Court California, San Bernardino.

HOW TO PLAY

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

Faith talks to a chastened Taylor Swift. Caught in the middle, Tim McGraw STAY AWAY!

Celeb wives warn their men

Faith fury AS TAYLOR FLIRTS WITH TIM

FAITH HILL knew Taylor Swift was "trouble" as soon as she walked in!

Dressed in a skintight little black dress, the "22" singer slinked across the stage in front of Faith's hubby Tim McGraw at a recent concert — and her seductive antics didn't go unnoticed by Tim OR Faith. After catching Tim ogling the much-younger star, Faith, 45, cornered Taylor and warned the 23-year-old "tartlet" to stay away from her man.

"THERE WAS MAJOR SEXUAL chemistry onstage between Taylor and Tim," said a source. "And Faith was fuming backstage."

On April 8, Tim hosted a star-studded multigenre music event at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas. Among the talent he assembled for his "Superstar Summer Night" show, which will air on May 19 on CBS, were Nelly, Pitbull, Ne-Yo, Jason Aldean, Lady Antebellum, Keith Urban and Taylor, who ditched her usual conservative attire for a super-sexy black mini-dress with see-through cutouts.

"Taylor chose that dress specifically so that she could parade in front of Tim," said the source. "Tim couldn't take his eyes off of her, and Taylor seemed to be enjoying the attention."

"She couldn't take her eyes off him, either."

Despite her youth, Taylor has earned a reputation as a serial dater, racking up an impressive list of celebrity boyfriends, including John Mayer, Joe Jonas, Jake Gyllenhaal, Taylor Lautner and RFK Jr.'s hunky son Conor Kennedy.

Meanwhile, Taylor collaborated with Tim, 45, on his new single "Highway Don't Care." And while he's older than her usual crushes, he's in better shape than ever thanks to a grueling workout regimen.

"Knowing Taylor's reputation for bouncing from man to man, Faith made sure to put her foot down right away," added the source. "She made it clear to Taylor that Tim is off-limits."

JUSTIN TIMBERLAKE wants to get into bed with Rihanna business-wise, and sources say his wife Jessica Biel is flipping out! "Jessica has had her trust issues with Justin, and knowing that he's schmoozing Rihanna really makes her nervous," revealed an insider.

"She's told Justin that she wants him to avoid dealing with RiRi one-on-one and leave the negotiating to his business team, but that's not how Justin rolls."

The "Suit & Tie" singer has big plans to reinvent himself as a technology mogul, says the source, and he's determined to enlist Rihanna for his reboot of the social network MySpace.

Justin, who owns stake in MySpace, "wants to lure Rihanna into his MySpace camp by sponsoring her concert dates," explained the source. "He approached her recently with the pitch that he'd take some of the business pressure off her shoulders. But what he really wants is to bring her online business ventures — and her fans — onto MySpace." Justin, who is featured on Rihanna's "Rehab" single, also wants to record more music with her.

AND THAT'S APPARENTLY GOT Mrs. Timberlake sweating bullets.

As THE ENQUIRER reported back in 2009, when reports swirled that Justin, 32, and Rihanna, 25, were fooling around while collaborating on the sexpot's album, she secretly called Jessica to assure her that wasn't the case.

"But Jessica knows Justin like the back of her hand, and she can tell he's got a crush on Rihanna," said the source. "Now she's worried all over again!"

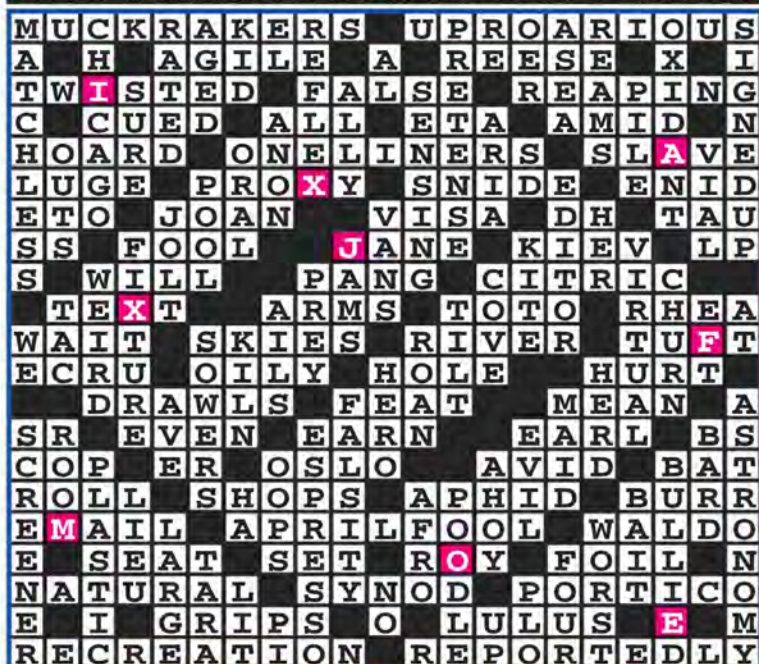

Jessica Biel can tell hubby Justin Timberlake has a crush on Rihanna, says a source

Matt Hartman got down on bended knee and asked Lis Ruhling to marry him...

...but before she could answer, the savage surf knocked them off their feet

SWEPT AWAY

Giant wave
ROMANTIC
WEDDING
PROPOSAL

Luckily, the two lovebirds were washed ashore instead of out to sea

TALK about sweeping a woman off her feet! Matt Hartman thought he'd dreamed up the perfect way to propose to girlfriend Lis Ruhling – atop a big rock on a California beach as the sun was setting over the Pacific. But just as Matt popped the question, Mother Nature stepped in to answer – sending along a rogue wave that knocked the lovebirds off the rock and into the ocean.

"I saw this huge wave coming straight toward us," Lis told The ENQUIRER. "And when it hit us, we both went flying. I'm surprised we didn't end up in the emergency room!"

Matt, 25, and Lis, 23, met at Southern Adventist University in their hometown of Chattanooga, Tenn. They've managed to maintain a two-year relationship even though Matt is now studying to be a doctor in California while Lis remained in Tennessee, training to become a nurse. Matt decided to propose to Lis while she was visiting him over Thanksgiving and says he found the perfect spot just north of Laguna Beach.

On the evening of Nov. 21, Matt took Lis to a fancy Italian restaurant near the beach he'd chosen. Claiming to have left his wallet in the car, Matt slipped out of the restaurant, changed into a tux and headed for the beach. Meanwhile, some friends who were in on the plan covered Lis' eyes with a blindfold and drove her to the appointed location.

"I GOT UP ON THE ROCK AND then our friends took the blindfold off Lis and she joined me," Matt said. "I had my guitar. I sang a song I'd written about how much I loved her...Then I handed my guitar to a friend."

"During this time, a couple of waves came up over the rock, but they were small and I figured they weren't going to hurt us."

Our wedding definitely won't be on a rock at the beach

"I took the ring out of my pocket and got down on one knee. I said: 'Lis, will you marry me?' But before she could answer, the biggest wave of the day knocked us off the rock into the ocean."

Luckily for the couple, the wave swept them into shore instead of out to sea – and once on solid ground, Lis was able to give Matt a soggy but enthusiastic "yes" to his proposal.

Incredibly, Matt was able to hold onto the ring throughout the entire ordeal.

"We were both in shock but able to laugh about it," he recalled. "While I thought the wave had ruined everything, Lis said it just made the proposal more memorable."

The couple plan to marry in June, but this time they're going the traditional route.

"Our wedding definitely won't be on a rock at the beach," declared Matt. "It's going to be safely within the walls of a church!"

by PHILIP SMITH
tips@nationalenquirer.com

Lis eventually said yes to Matt, and they plan to tie the knot in June – in a much drier place
